Thursday 26th May, 6pm

Walking Tour around the Western Approach Road and Union Canal

This tour will explore the developments around the Caledonian Railway's terminus at Princes Street station and westwards to the Union Canal and the former Scottish & Newcastle Brewery. This area has changed rapidly in recent decades, and we'll discuss changes still to come. Tom Parnell will be leading the tour.

Meet at 6pm outside 15 Rutland Square. The walk will end at Viewforth. £8

Tuesday 14th June, 6pm

Walking Tour of the City Centre Bridges of Edinburgh,

Edinburgh was radically reshaped by the construction of the bridges within the city centre. Today these structures go unnoticed, partly hidden by the surrounding buildings. Dominic Echlin will lead a walking tour to look at them.

Meet at 6pm at Waterloo Place, above Regent's Arch. The walk will end at George IV bridge. £8

Saturday 30th July, 10am

Walking Tour of the Fettes College Grounds

Fettes College is perhaps the most impressive of Edinburgh's renowned independent schools. This tour will encompass a mix of old and new, visiting the original David Bryce building as well as taking a look at some of the newer additions to the site, including those by Page/Park.

Meet at 9:45am outside the Fettes College gates on Carrington Road. £8

Saturday 1st

Womersley visit

Visit some of the buildings designed by Peter Womersley in the Scottish Borders, including those designed for textile designer Bernat Klein near Selkirk, Womersley's own home at Gattonside and work at Dingleton, Melrose. Coach Tour led by Simon Green. Tour forms part of the Peter Womersley Celebration 2016.

Depart 15 Rutland Square at 9.30am.
