

Castles to Clock Towers: Conserving the Built Heritage of Aberdeenshire

Thursday 27 October 2016

Booking
Now Open!
bit.ly/NESPT
Conference

The National Trust for Scotland's magnificent Fyvie Castle, the subject of one of the presentations at the Conference

VENUE:
Haddo House, Methlick,
Ellon, Aberdeenshire,
AB41 7EQ

Through a combination of inspiring case studies and expert testimony, this conference celebrates how opportunities have been identified in the creative re-use of Aberdeenshire's built heritage; sharing knowledge and ideas on how projects can be funded, solutions found and challenges overcome.

9.00am - 4.30pm

Conference Chairman: Andrew P K Wright OBE
Speakers: Richard Murphy OBE, Tom Duff, Paul Higson, David Narro, David Chouman, Ian Davidson, David W Walker and Alan Marshall

Limited places are available for a 'behind the scenes' tour of Haddo House, following by a drinks reception in the wonderful surroundings of the drawing room on the evening of Thursday 27th October (5.00pm - 7.30pm).

On Friday 28th October there are also a limited number of tickets for a day of site visits, starting at 9.30am at the Haddo Estate, then visiting Portsoy (The Sail Loft, Boat Shed and Salmon Bothy), and ending the day with a walking tour of the Banff Conservation Area before returning to Haddo for 3.45pm.

Contact: info@nespt.org  @NESPTconference #CastlesToClockTowers